JOIN THE SUDBURY HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO

Paint the Parsonage

at Brush and Easel, Inc.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28th
7:00 pm

Brush and Easel is a new Paint Café in Sudbury at 339 Boston Post Road.

The c.1730 Loring Parsonage was once Reverend Israel Loring's house. It will soon be the home of the Sudbury History Center operated by the Sudbury Historical Society.

$30 per person. All materials included.

Reservations required. 20 spaces available.
Register through Brush and Easel's event calendar at www.brushandeaselinc.com.

A portion of the Paint Studio fee benefits the Sudbury Historical Society.

Many thanks to

Brush and Easel Inc.
Painting Cafe

for supporting the SHS as a new Community Partner!

For information about the SHS and Sudbury History Center project, visit sudbury01776.org or like us on Facebook.